

Table with columns for year, month, day, number, name, position, and location. The data is organized in a grid with 10 columns and thousands of rows, starting from 2011-01-01 and listing various government employees and their roles.